What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your computer, smartphone, tablet or other device when you visit a website.

Cookies help websites function properly, remember user preferences, improve website performance and provide information about how visitors use a website.

Cookies may be:

- Session Cookies which expire when you close your browser; or
- Persistent Cookies which remain on your device for a specified period.

Cookies can also be:

- First-Party Cookies set by us; or

- Third-Party Cookies set by service providers operating on our behalf.

How we use Cookies

We may use cookies and similar technologies to:

- ensure our website functions correctly;
- remember user preferences and settings;
- maintain website security;
- analyse website traffic and visitor behaviour;
- improve website performance and content;
- understand how visitors interact with our website;
- measure the effectiveness of our services and website content.

Types of Cookies we use

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the operation of the website and cannot be switched off through our cookie preference tools.

They may be used to:

- maintain website security;
- remember privacy preferences;
- support website functionality;
- manage user sessions.

Without these cookies, some areas of the website may not function correctly.

Analytics and Performance Cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors use our website.

They may collect information such as:

- pages visited;
- time spent on pages;
- navigation paths;
- website performance information;
- error reporting information.

The information collected is generally aggregated and used to improve website functionality and user experience.

These cookies will only be used where required lawfully and following your consent.

Functional Cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make and provide enhanced functionality.

Examples include:

- language preferences;
- cookie preferences;
- user settings.

These cookies will only be used where required by law and following your consent.

Marketing and Advertising Cookies

Where used, these cookies help measure the effectiveness of marketing activities and may be used by third-party services to provide relevant content or advertising.

ABZN Consultancy Limited does not currently use targeted advertising cookies unless expressly identified through our cookie consent mechanism.

Should this change, appropriate information and consent options will be provided.

The specific cookies used on our website may change from time to time. We will update this Cookie Policy where significant changes occur.

Third Party Cookies

ABZN Consultancy Limited does not control the operation of third-party cookies. Users should review the privacy and cookie information provided by the relevant third-party service providers.

Our website may use third party services that place cookies or use similar technologies. Our website is hosted using Wix. Certain cookies may be set by Wix and its service providers to enable website functionality, security, analytics and performance features.

If you use our online booking page, Microsoft may set cookies or similar technologies needed to operate the booking service. Please see Microsoft's privacy statement for details. Any non-essential cookies will only be set with your consent.

Depending on the services implemented on the website, these may include:

- website hosting and website management providers;
- website analytics providers;
- video content providers;
- customer relationship management systems;
- appointment booking tools;
- social media integrations.

Where such cookies are non-essential, they will only be activated following your consent.

We do not control third party cookies and recommend that users review the privacy and cookie information provided by the relevant third party providers.

Cookie Consent

When you first visit our website, you may be presented with a cookie banner allowing you to:

- accept all cookies;
- reject non-essential cookies;
- customise your cookie preferences.

Where required by law, non-essential cookies will not be placed on your device until you have provided your consent.

You can change your preferences at any time through our cookie settings tools where available.

Strictly necessary cookies are used because they are required for the operation, security and functionality of the website. Non-essential cookies are only used with your consent.

Managing Cookies

You can manage or remove cookies through your browser settings.

Most web browsers allow you to:

- view cookies stored on your device;
- delete cookies;
- block cookies;
- receive notifications before cookies are placed.

Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality and performance of our website.

For further information about managing cookies, please refer to your browser provider's guidance.

Personal Data

Some cookies may collect information that constitutes personal data under UK data protection legislation.

Where personal data is collected through cookies or similar technologies, such information will be processed in accordance with our Privacy Notice and applicable UK data protection legislation.

Some third party providers may process information outside the United Kingdom. Where this occurs, appropriate safeguards will be implemented in accordance with applicable data protection laws. Further information can be found in our Privacy Notice.

Changes to this Cookie Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in legal requirements, technology, website functionality or our business operations.

The most current version will always be available on our website.
